Only Way to Gain Peace for Poland Says Premier

WARSAW, Tuesday, March 18. —Germany, although defeated in the west is not yet beaten in the east and her aims in that part of Europe are to be frustrated and there is to be peace there must be a strong Poland, Jan Ignace Paderewski, the premier of Poland, declared today.

In outlining the present situation of Poland, and its relation to the whole European question, Premier Paderewski said:

The importance to the peace of Europe of a strong and united Poland can not be exaggerated. Germany made war not for honor and ideals, but for markets and raw material. The war has not yet been won. Germany is ready to acknowledge herself beaten in "The same men who organized the present war count on re-organizing Russia in their own interests. If they do so they will have an endless supply of labor and raw material.

"What stands in Germany's way is not France or England, which are so far off. Germany is at the gates of disorganized Russia and once let her combine with the Bolsheviks and re-organize Russia as she will have the leisure to do so. At that time, she will dominate the world. A strong Poland alone can block this plan.

"From time immemorial it has been the task of Poland to protect civilization from the hordes of Asia. Organized by Germany they would be a machine to crush democratic civilization.

"Danzig we must have because without it our commerce is at the mercy of Germany.

"From Danzig to Posen the majority of the population is Polish.

The country is a garden and it furnishes two-thirds of the potatoes for Germany.

"Upper Silesia is even more Polish than Posen. It will be the center of our iron industry.

"In eastern Galicia a majority of the inhabitants are Ruthenians. The distinction between them and the Poles is not racial but only religious and linguistic. The Polish peasants in Eastern Galicia are enthusiastic over their newly found national unity, freedom and

"This patriotism is rooted deeply in the Polish people and will cement our nation in a strong barrier against Bolshevism on the one hand and against pan-Germanism on the other, if we receive from the peace conference those districts which will give us real independence nationally, industrially and commercially. I hope that the American people will help us to attain this end."

WILSON IN TOUCH WITH WASHINGTON

PARIS, March 21.—By The Associated Press.)—President Wilson is keeping in close touch with his private secretary, Joseph P. Tumulty, and Secretary Glass regarding the situation in which the Executive departments at Washington have been left as a result of the failure of congress to act on several of the great annual appropriation bills. President Wilson has satisfied himself that for the present at least there is no imminent danger of the suspension of any vital government activities and already has authorized measures to meet emergencies that have arisen.

Mr. Gompers' departure marks the virtual conclusion of the labor commission work.

Statistics show that food prices have been reduced 6 per cent in the last month. This is a consoling thought, but it will take a much bigger drop in the "higher cost of living" to have any noticeable effect on the daily expense for the average household.

Elihu Root, one of the attorneys for the big liquor interests, now endeavoring to stop the progress of prohibition legislation, has told his clients that beer with two and three-quarters per cent of alcohol content can be sold if proven non-intoxicating. After all, that is quite a conservative statement and the liquor interests must prove just what the effect of that much alcohol will be, when applied inwardly to the constitution of the consumer.

The price of steel by agreement between the producers and the government has been reduced 14 per cent. While this will not make much of a change in finished products—none at all at present—it will have the effect of stimulating building operations. That is said to be its main purpose at this time. Director Hines has promised a reduction in freight rates for rock, gravel and other building materials, so that some real efforts are being made by the government to speed up building program and provide against unemployment.

WHAT THE COLLEGES MEAN.

The vote of the ministers who assembled at Decatur Thursday to consider the question of removing Wesleyan university from Bloomington to Springfield, does not settle the matter, although by a very large majority the ministers declared in favor of the change. Later on the Methodist conference is almost sure to take the same action, and there is also the prospect of litigation before the proposed removal becomes an actuality.

The people of Bloomington are not going to see this change take place without first testing in the courts the right of the governing board to bring about removal. It is doubtful if Bloomington had nearly as keen an appreciation of what the university means to that city that now obtains. A college or university, aside from its other value, is a distinct business asset to any community. It is for these two reasons that Bloomington wants to retain Wesleyan and that Springfield is seeking to bring about the removal. The lesson for Jacksonville in the situation is to have a more thorough understanding of the value of its colleges, and to give even more support to these institutions in the future than has marked the past days.

THE CALL FROM SERBIA.

"I have seen Serbian women with only strips of gunny-sacking about their bodies. Particularly in the districts of Vranja, Prokuplje and Leskovac, there is the direst need for clothing of all kinds."

Captain John Jager, of Minneapolis, a member of the lately disbanded Red Cross Agricultural Commission to Serbia, would have every man, woman, and child in America ransack the closet and the rag-bag for the things they will not wear any more and send them to Europe to ease the intense suffering of the refugees. Captain Jager tells of the things he has seen in Serbia. "In December in Skopje, a pair of shoes cost 180 francs. The high-heeled shoes of the American women would go on feet that are bare today. Of course, the Serbian women would take off the heels, for no Jugo-Slavian could wear the shoes of America. But they would have shoes again, and the first many of them have worn in many a month."

"They can use clothes of any size. The women are very clever at remaking clothes. If you could only send them needles, thread, scissors, thimbles and buttons, too, every Serbian peasant woman would be grateful."

According to Captain Jager, fully half of the population of four and a half millions in Serbia and a majority of the natives of all Jugo-Slavia, would welcome with great joy gifts of used clothing from America.

The Red Cross drive for second-hand clothing will continue until March 30. All the clothing will be sent over as soon as shipping space can be had. It is expected that 10,000 tons will be sent.

Not all of the clothing will go to the Balkans. The refugees in France, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Palestine are also in great need and will also be supplied.

In addition to used garments, the American Red Cross is collecting blankets, shoes and cloth of all kinds. Clothing for children of every age and for men and women is needed.

Another objector has entered the arena and is seeking by legal process to defeat the expressed will of the majority. In the stance, the objector has filed against aldermanic candidates in the second ward. Other objections may be looked for in the course of the next few days, but "it will all come out in the wash," and nobody, either objectors or the "objected to" seem to be much worried.

Some Chicago interests are earnestly seeking $2.35 tax rate for that city and other measures are before the legislature which it is said, if passed, would increase the total Chicago tax rate by at least 50 per cent. The Tribune is not supporting all of these measures but is urging legislators to consider all the bills carefully, to turn none down merely because they would add an extra tax burden. The Tribune declares that the war duties are not yet passed and that it is only reasonable to expect that the property owners of this country must bear much heavier tax burdens, both on incomes and property, during a reconstruction period of uncertain extent. In the belief of the Tribune, an unreasonable opposition to increased taxes is at this time unpractical.

THE JUDICIAL ELECTION.

The people of Jacksonville and this county find special pleasure in supporting the candidacy of Hon. George H. Wilson as a member of the supreme court. They can give him support with full knowledge of his character and training, based upon long years of acquaintanceship. Mr. Wilson graduated from Illinois college, his home was here for a number of years, and he has family connections which have continually brought him into the county.

Thus the acquaintanceship which began in his college days has continued for a twenty five year period. Practically all of Mr. Wilson's professional life has been spent in Quincy, and the records of the courts there furnish the best of evidence of his experience and success as a member of the Adams county bar. His practice has extended into a considerable area outside of his home city, and he has high standing as a practitioner. Successful in his professional work, faithful to every legal trust, found identified with every movement for community or state betterment, Mr. Wilson has a record which entitles him to consideration for the supreme bench. The election is coming at a busy season of the year, especially for rural communities, but the people of Morgan county realize what important interests are at stake in selecting a supreme court member, and a heavy vote is the expectation for election day. Just about the best estimate of a man's character and fitness is made by those friends who have known him in his school days, in his business career and in his home life. And judged in this way, Morgan county people find Mr. Wilson fully worthy to fill the high office that he is seeking.

the weary world may wag any blamed way it may please, and the night hours will not drag, but will scot like bumble bees.

I don't care to talk a streak, or to argue politics, or to listen for a week to the silver throated hicks; I am tired of croaknote and of chess; poker puts me in the hole; so does bridge whist, more or less. All the games I know are boring, and increase my load of woe, when the tempest howls outdoors, and there is no place to go. Bring me then a stack of books, while my neighbor yawns and nods, and the evening to me looks like a present from the gods.

VICTORY DAY FOR THE PRESBYTERIANS

Sunday Will Be Specially Observed By Churches of This Denomination.

As a part of the great New Era Movement, the Presbyterian churches are in the midst of the Victory Fund Drive and tomorrow is the Sunday set as "Over the Top" day for most of the churches in the United States.

A five year national program for the church has been initiated and drive is to secure the funds to finance the program. A nation wide educational and inspirational campaign has been conducted. In Springfield Presbytery the churches here entered into the plan with zeal and enthusiasm and on Sunday in most of the parishes teams of men and women under direction of their captains may be seen canvassing all the members of their churches and the evidence point to liberal responses in larger gifts than have ever been given for local and missionary causes in the history of the church.

Some churches, where conditions or roads and other circumstances made it impracticable to put the Drive on tomorrow, are laying their plans to accomplish even better things for their parishes when they can with better effect, marshal their forces for the results later so that during the next few weeks every church will respond assuming its share of the great "Budget of Opportunity."

SCIENCE ACADEMY BEGINS SESSION

Twelfth Annual Meeting For State—Subjects of General Interest Discussed.

The twelfth annual meeting of the Illinois State Academy of Science began Friday afternoon with a meeting of committees at the Dunlap hotel. There was a general session later on at Illinois college, which continued until nearly 6 o'clock. Then came a banquet served at the Christian church, followed by an illustrated lecture at Illinois Woman's College. There are fifty or sixty delegates present and others will come today. The academy has a total membership of 400, but the representation here is about the average for a period of years. There will be a session this morning beginning at 9 o'clock. At noon a luncheon will be served at Academy hall and at 2 o'clock this afternoon will come a business session, followed by the presentation of papers. As already mentioned, all sessions are open to the general public.

At the opening session yesterday afternoon President C. H. Rammelkamp of Illinois College delivered the address of welcome. Dr. Rammelkamp made it plain that the college of Jacksonville and the people generally are glad indeed to welcome the delegates to the city, as he felt sure that the program outlined would be of educational and inspirational benefit. At the business session it was decided to become a definite part of the department of registration and education in Illinois. This will mean that some financial assistance will be secured in forwarding the work of the organization.

To Enlarge Work.
It was also decided that the Academy shall become a member of the American association for the Advancement of Education. A committee was named to bring about the affiliation of a number of smaller scientific organizations through the state with the state academy so that in the course of the coming years both the membership and the scope of work will be greatly enlarged.

At the 3 o'clock session the first paper was that by Dr. H. S. Peppoon of the Lake View high school, who discussed a proposed state park. This paper gave the facts in connection with the Starved Rock project.

With the aid of the lantern Dr. Peppoon presented some of the beauties of the park and gave an interesting review of the general progress of development. Dr. Charles S. Millsbaugh of the Field museum of Chicago discussed "Botany in a Public Museum."

Then Dr. Frank C. Baker made an address on the Museum of natural history of the University of Illinois. The forestry survey of the state formed a basis for a symposium of addresses, introduced by Prof. S. A. Forbes of the state laboratory of a natural history, who gave the general plans and purposes of the survey. The survey as applied to Cook county is described by Prof. H. C. Cowles of the University of Chicago. Miss Hazel Schmol of the same university and Prof. Waterman of Northwestern. Dr. H. S. Peppoon talked on behalf of the Jo Daviess county. Dr. George D. Fuller for LaSalle county; O. D. Frank, Adams county; Dr. W. J. McDougall for Verrill county and Dr. Arthur G. Vestal for Cumberland county.

Gave Dinner.
Shortly before 6 o'clock adjournment was taken to Central Christian church, where the women of that church served a splendid dinner. Dean R. D. Salisbury, president of the academy, presided and introduced Dr. Josephine Milligan, who told something of her Red Cross work abroad, especially related to the tuberculosis situation there. The delegates found the address of a most enlightening kind.

Following this address adjournment was taken to Illinois Woman's College for the lecture by Dr. Salisbury on Porto Rico.

OAT SMUT TREATMENT
Two demonstrations of treating oats smut were given yesterday under the direction of Mr. Briggs of the department of agriculture and County Agent Kendall. About 9 o'clock in the morning a demonstration was given at Arnold, for which George Hollev furnished the oats. A comparatively small company was present. At 11 o'clock on the David Rawlings farm northwest of Franklin a much larger company assembled for a second demonstration. There were a number of men in the group who had no previous knowledge of the dry method of treating oats for smut and they were all of one mind that the plan is well worth while and they propose to follow it for their spring oat planting.

As previously mentioned, there will be several demonstrations held in Jacksonville today, at least one on the public square.

SPIRITED CONTEST AT CENTENARY

Teams in Men's Bible Class Develop New Interest.

The big contest between the Reds and the Blues of the Loyal Men's Bible class of Centenary Sunday school began last Sunday and proved novel and interesting. The Reds are led by J. N. Deatherage and the Blues by Ira Patterson and in the score of last Sunday the Reds won by twenty points. The score was 1150 points for the Reds and 1130 for the Blues.

Advertisements were run asking for fifty men at Centenary church on Sunday morning and there were fifty-one, which is an other evidence that advertising pays. In the issue for this date 100 men are wanted at this old church and in the Loyal Men's class for next Sunday at 9:45 a. m. It is necessary to be present by this hour as it counts in the contest.

The entire school and many persons in the other Bible schools are watching this contest with interest. This Bible class is one of the largest in the city if not the largest and has the largest regular attendance of any Methodist Sunday school in the Jacksonville district. It is largely due to its members claim to the splendid teaching of C. S. Smith.

All men who do not attend Sunday school are requested to join with this body of earnest Bible students and will be given a most cordial welcome. This class claims that it has an interesting lesson study and a fine fellowship. Visitors are always welcome.

GRAVE CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST SECRETARY BAKER

Baker covering the treatment of conscientious objectors had served to stimulate I. W. W. and other radical propaganda in the army. It was pointed out, however, that the orders of the department during the war had been inserted in the congressional record.

The largest number of men in the conscientious objectors class at any camp was reported from Camp Funston and some instances of alleged extreme severity in treatment of prisoners there were reported.

Investigations were ordered but no disciplinary action was taken against any camp authorities. The records of the war department also contain reports on investigations resulting from charges made as to discrimination by Major Foster in his administration of camp concessions. No warrant for action of any sort against him was developed.

Some officers informally expressed the opinion that they were surprised that the so-called secret orders of the department as to conscientious objectors had been interpreted in the light put upon them by Major Foster. The whole problem of the objectors was a difficult one to handle, it was said, and many conferences and debates were held before the orders were issued.

The suggestion that the prohibition against publication of the orders contained in them was intended to conceal the action of the war department from the country at large was not considered seriously by these officers who said the actual purpose was to prevent a spread of conscientious objector disaffection thru advertisement.

The intimation of Major Foster, that Secret Orders had gone to the local draft boards was said by war department officials to be without basis.

NEW PRICES FOR STEEL AND IRON ARE MADE PUBLIC

with an increased volume of business soon to be developed a reasonable return to the average and better than average production will be afforded. In view of the higher costs developed through the world as a result of the war a return to anything like pre-war prices is regarded as out of the question. It is expected that other industries as well as the consuming public and labor will recognize their obligations in the circumstances and co-operate in the generous spirit as has the steel industry.

Gary's Statement.

After asserting that the steel industry had given consideration to the new schedule Judge Gary in his statement said:

"The object to be secured are a revival and a stabilization of business by establishing areas on a basis of prices, which would be satisfactory to the consuming public and yet so far as practicable, would yield a moderate and reasonable return to the investor where they are entitled to it and at the same time would not disturb wage rates or interfere with wage agreements and further having determined upon prices which it is expected will not be reduced during this year it is believed that the volume of business will be promptly increased and that furnaces and mills will be operating at a largely increased capacity thus giving employment to a corresponding increased number of employees."

"It has been necessary to ascertain and scrutinize all the facts and figures in order to prevent any injustice and this has been the occasion for considerable discussion and some differences but as a final result of the conference the committee appointed to represent the entire iron and steel industry joined in the report which was made to the industrial board. While in the opinion of some of the manufacturers the board has insisted upon some changes in the schedule submitted before approving the same, yet the iron and steel committees were convinced that the members of the board have been governed solely with the intention of protecting and promoting the best interests of the public the investors of capital and the employees without discrimination and that the action of the board has been wise and just."

The iron and steel industry was the first called upon by the board to meet the business situation and to lend its energies and assistance in bringing about readjustment and restoration of good business conditions and therefore was the first called upon to make the necessary sacrifice in profits, those connected with the trade believe that as a result for the year as a whole they will be compensated and that if other lines of industry show the same disposition as they undoubtedly will, we may expect some business progress and prosperity in the near future."

This is intended to prevent the importation of dye stuffs and to encourage the dye industry at home.

RE OBJECTIONS HAVE BEEN FILED

ard Wannamaker Seeks To rid of His Aldermanic Rivals, A. E. Williamson and G. P. own—Objector Had Fourth
ace In Party Primary.

Interest in the primary election
was further increased yesterday when Howard Wannamaker filed objections directed against A. E. Williamson and G.
P. Brown, who were candidates aldermen in the second ward.
Wannamaker's attorney is J.
Priest and the procedure is highly different from that followed by W. N. Haigrove, attorney for J. S. Green.

Mr. Priest prepared a notice of action, addressed to R. L. Pyas city clerk and to the alderman candidates, and Mr. Wanmaker served the papers himself. The notice as prepared simply recounts the fact that the election was held Tuesday, March 11; that the votes were canvassed and that in the view of the ob-jector that the canvassing board has no authority to issue certificate of nomination to Mr. Williamson or Mr. Brown from the fact that their petitions were filed Feb. 20,

one day later than required by law.

It will be noted in this proceeding that the objector is seeking to dispose of A. E. Williamson, who in the election received 644
votes and was declared with C. B.
Graft one of the two party nominees, and also against George P.
Brown, who received 221 votes and was the third man on the ticket. Mr. Wannamaker himself received 148 votes, fourth highest number of votes cast.

Nobody seems to know just the exact theory on which the various objectors are proceeding, tho it is commonly understood that the objections as filed are the result of a common agreement. It is understood too that the canvassing
board is not expected to question the propriety of the candidacy of any man, whether or not his nomination papers were filed on Feb.
20, unless objections are made to such a candidacy.

The question has arisen as to the proper membership of the canvassing board. Under the commission form of government in regular election it is understood to be the rule that the whole council constitutes the canvassing board. For a primary election the law says that the canvassing shall be done by a board consisting of the mayor, the city attorney and the city clerk. The returns of the election in question were canvassed by the city council as a whole. There is some possibility therefore that another canvass may be made. That is merely a formal matter and it is realized that no such canvass will result in any important change as to the total vote shown cast for any of the candidates.

Some other objections may be filed today and others may be held awaiting the possibility of another vote canvass next Monday.

THE ROTARY CLUB

At the Rotary club luncheon
Friday it was decided to send three delegates to the district conference at Joliet April 11 and 12.
It is expected that a larger number will go but the official representation will be limited to three.
Joliet Rotarians have sent out mats cordial invitations for members and their wives all thru the district to attend as a number of matters of great importance to the organization are to be presented.

R. W. Stevens, vice president of the Illinois Life Insurance Co., was one of the guests present and spoke very briefly. "The financial outlook" was Mr. Stevens' theme and based upon his observations of "big business" in Chicago, he was able to view the future with assurance and to look forward to continued period of activity.

An unusual entertainment feature was provided by Elzie Bowns of Illinois college, who gave a series of memory feats which the club found very interesting. Mr.
Bowns has an excellent memory which he has trained during the last few years in such a way that he can remember facts and figures in a very unusual way. For example, he can remember, each running into the thousands are read off to him slowly he can immediately afterward repeat all the figures read to him in the order originally given or can reverse the order. Yesterday he also showed his ability to remember names of eighteen or twenty objects in the order in which they are first repeated to him. He could also correctly pick out the numerical place in the list of any one of the objects. In explaining how he trained his memory Mr. Bowns said it was mainly a development of the principle of association of ideas. It was, indeed, a very interesting demonstration of memory strength.

WESTMINSTER GUILD

The Westminster Guild met
Friday afternoon with Miss Hattie Phillips at her home on South Diamond street. Before the study of the gospel of John was begun members had the pleasure of hearing Miss Margaret Moore tell something of her work in the Hostess House at Camp Funston.
Miss Moore related a number of incidents which gave a clear idea of the scope of Hostess House work and its value to both the soldiers and their friends. On perhaps the busiest day Miss Moore spent at the camp the records showed there were more than 10,000 visitors at the Hostess House. That day more than 1,200 meals were served in the cafe.

Miss Moore is to leave in the course of a few days for her work abroad.

for the protection of vice. George recites that on or about Janu-

to accept from George Brown and George Henderson the total sum of $25,000 in monthly payments of $2,500 each and that $2,000
was actually paid to a former newspaper man for the mayor, the payments being in return for alleged protection to Brown and

OPPOSE JAPS BUYING CALIFORNIA LAND

WASHINGTON, March 21.—
As a result of telegrams from attitude of the United States government toward such sales of property which might be used for military purposes.

It was said that the land in question was reported to comprise nearly a million acres. The use to which it is to be put is not

The serious situation with which transportation companies

QUICK PEACE DESIRED

Paris, March 21.—"The first result to be obtained is peace and the quickest peace possible," said David Lloyd George in a statement printed in today's issue of the Excelsior.
"All internal events in every country, allied or enemy," continued the premier, "are dependent upon that peace, which we expect and desire to come at the earliest possible moment."
"I shall remain in Paris, unless something unexpected arises, until the text of the peace preliminaries is definitely drafted and ready for submission to the German delegation, not, let me say,
for discussion, but simply for signature."

Give it in Time
Every mother knows that coughs and colds, neglected, may lead to the most dread diseases. Croup, bronchitis, pneumonia and consumption often have their beginning in a slight cold.
The wise mother gives Foley's Honey and Tar
at the first signs of a cough or cold. She knows it stops coughs quickly, puts a soothing, healing coating on an inflamed
and tickling throat, and gives a feeling of warmth and comfort to the sufferer.
Mrs. M. E. Schlarb, Ashland, Penn., writes—
"Foley's Honey and Tar is the best cough and cold remedy I have ever tried. When my little girl gets a cold on her chest, I give her a few drops, and it relieves her right away."

BRIEF PARAGRAPHS
FROM WHITE HALL

Funeral of Mrs. Priscilla Pepperdine Held—Other News Notes.

White Hall, March 21.—The remains of Mrs. Priscilla Pepperdine arrived from Jacksonville at noon today, and were conveyed to the cemetery, four miles northwest of White Hall, where funeral services were conducted by

Rev. J. O. Raines, of White Hall, immediately on the arrival of the funeral party. Mrs. Pepperdine was an old and highly respected resident of this section, having resided in White Hall during the past six years, coming here from Drake Station. She had been in ill health for several years, and about a month ago it was decided by her Baptist friends to place her in Passavant hospital at Jacksonville for treatment preparatory to her going to an old folks' home, and she took seriously ill and died in the hospital at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, her death being a shock to her wide circle of friends and admirers. Her age was 78 years. Her husband, Samuel Pepperdine, and her two sons died several years ago while she was a resident of Drake Station in Patterson township. Her maiden name was Angelo, daughter of James and Lydia Angelo, and she was born at Scottville, Macoupin county. She leaves the following brothers and sisters: Samuel P. Angelo, Jacksonville; Martin Angelo, Brazil, Ind.; Leander Angelo, Alton; Mrs. Dora Rocker, Virden; Mrs. Lydia Valne, California; Mrs. Ella Strain, Crawfordsville, Iowa.

Committees representing the soldiers' monument association and the women's clubs visited the monument grounds this morning and located the memorial trees that are to be planted in memory of the White Hall boys, six in number, who died in service during the present war. The trees are to be hard maple and they will be formed in a semi-circle at the rear of the monument. The trees are to be dedicated with public ceremonies on April 3rd.

A REAL ECONOMY
Because of Extra Wear

There is no better judge of shoe wear and comfort than the policeman who is on his feet all day long. W. H. Berry, patrolman in Boston, Mass., says of Neolin-soled shoes: "My shoes with Neolin Soles serve me better than any others I have ever used. They keep my feet dry at all times, and do not slip."

When you buy new shoes, be sure they are Neolin-soled, and you, too, will know a better service from shoes. Moreover, these shoes are a real economy because of the extra wear they give. Most good shoe stores carry them in styles for men, women, and children.

And don't throw away your old shoes. Have them re-soled with Neolin Soles. Remember—these soles are flexible and waterproof, as well as long wearing, and are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to out wear all other heels.

TO ALL WAR SAVERS.

By your loyalty and patriotism you earned the thanks of your government, which are hereby expressed to you by the Honorable Carter Glass, secretary of the treasury, through the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco.

You Made Germany Quit. The dollars you loaned the United States treasury through war savings and liberty bonds brought about the signing of the armistice on November 11th, 1918. Realize the magnitude of these plans for a spring campaign in 1919. Four million men in France and a like number in training camps at home! Sixteen million rifles with adequate ammunition! Five hundred thousand cannon with shiploads of shells! A steel armored tank for every seventy-five yards of our line! Ten tons of mustard gas for every one Germany could produce! Complete mastery of the air with sufficient bombing planes to wipe out entire regiments and raze cities to the dust! Sixteen million tons of shipping to transport men and supplies to France! A huge assemblage of other war material on an equally grand scale. We were prepared to cut a swathe one hundred miles wide through to Berlin. We would have blasted Germany off the face of the earth. Thank you, war savers, your money made all this possible. Your prompt response to the call of your government saved half a million precious American lives. Like Belshazzar, the King of Babylon, Germany saw the handwriting of fate on the wall. This time it wrote: Disaster! Defeat! Death!

Don't overlook the fact, however, that in doing this splendid service for your country you were also helping yourselves. Every one of you know that by the war saving stamps you now hold you are that much ahead. You have saved and now have what you would otherwise have spent. Do you realize and appreciate the great privilege your government has extended to you by continuing the sale of these stamps? They are the best investment the United States has ever offered. By a partial-payment plan you are permitted to accumulate an asset which is increasing in value each month and which may be converted into full cash value at any time. The manner in which you respond to this opportunity will determine the government in either continuing it indefinitely or abandoning the plan altogether.

The treasury department at Washington has established the savings division of the war loan organization, and during the year 1919 will carry on an intensive educational campaign, both thru the schools and otherwise, to popularize the habit of thrift and encourage intelligent savings. Group saving, by means of war savings societies, will be especially encouraged and the plan of campaign will not include activities which are contrary to the fundamental principles of the thrift movement.

Demonstrate your appreciation of these efforts of your government for your welfare by assisting in every way the formation of war saving societies and by buying war saving stamps regularly week by week.

James K. Lynch,
Governor of Utah.

MORE ABOUT JUDGE
AARON WILLSON

Mrs. Martha E. Munson of San Diego, California, has recently written, giving some further information regarding Judge Aaron Willson, her grandfather. It will be remembered that Mr. Willson was probably our first merchant, one of our earliest county officers, a farmer, and all-around good citizen. He built and occupied the good house at what is now called Kilmarnock.

Mrs. Munson tells in her letter of her aunt, Mrs. Elma Louisa Hyde, of Toledo, Oregon, Judge Willson's only surviving daughter. She was the child of his old age, being born when he was seventy years of age. She is now eighty years old herself. Mrs. Hyde visited here six years ago and I heard of her at that time, seeking information regarding her grandfather. She received a letter from some one here, telling her he had in his possession the surveyor's chain that her father helped carry when Morgan county was surveyed, and also a side saddle which was bought at her father's sale when he moved from Jacksonville. This side saddle was one owned and used by the judge's first wife. She received the letter after being here.

Ensley Moore.

"Now I will try to answer those questions just as I remember and what my mother told me. My father was born in England and came to America when a young man, and settled first in New Jersey. He then went to Pennsylvania and there married a woman by his own name, Willson. They then moved to Illinois with four other families, making five in all where he bought land and began building himself a house on the ground where Jacksonville now stands. He sold the first dry goods that was sold in that place, carried the surveyor's chain and helped survey Morgan county. He helped to build the old brick college standing on the hill, in the west part of town, (Beecher Hall,) and he helped to set out the shade trees around it. Built the frame house that stood on the place now called Kilmarnock, and made him a home, planted orchards and shrubbery. He was county judge for a number of years as the old records will show. His wife died leaving him with three grown children, one boy and two girls, Charles, Belinda and Clarica. They were all educated in Jacksonville. Later he married the Widow Broadwell, she had five children (one pair of triplets), George, Jefferson and Monroe, Norman, and Harold. Harold was still living in Jacksonville when I was there six years ago. Their mother died and by her request was buried at Morgan City. When the railroad was surveyed between Springfield and Naples it went through her graveyard. My father had her and her first husband removed and laid by his first wife in Diamond Grove. In course of time he met my mother and they were married at Jacksonville. My mother was a southern woman, born and raised in Bullitt county, Kentucky. Her father served in the revolutionary war. Her maiden name was Sarah Jane Houston. She married a man by the name of Richard Shanklin, he died and left her with five children, all girls. She moved to Illinois, bought a farm, and lived there with her family till they were grown. She then married my father; they lived in Jacksonville until about the year 1835, when they moved to Scott county, Exeter being their post-office. It was there I, Elma Louisa, was born in 1839. My father's occupation there was improving his farm, setting out orchards, planting vineyard, setting out small fruit and gardens. It seems as though that kind of work was best to his liking. I remember our garden so well, laid off in walks east and west, and north and south, and they were so accurate that they looked as though they might have been laid off with a square and compass. The walks were all bordered with beautiful flowers. My father died in December, 1844, somewhere in his seventies, and was buried in Diamond Grove. In religion he was a Quaker, and in politics he was an old Line Whig. He was always very firm but in disposition he was kind and good, a loving and indulgent father and a devoted husband.

My mother and I lived on the farm till I was fourteen years old. Then we moved to Cass county, near Beardstown; lived there till her death. She died December, 1854, and was buried in the New man graveyard on the Bluffs. My mother was a woman noted for her hospitality; good and kind to all, no one ever left her door hungry; she was a devoted Christian."

BIGGER SAVINGS

The value of baking powder is based on its leavening strength. You can't judge it by the size of the can—or by the amount you get for your money. You must estimate it by the amount of baking powder used in each baking and the results you get.

CALUMET

is the greatest value ever offered in Baking Powder—has greater raising "force"—it goes further than most of the other brands. You use only a rounded heaping teaspoonful where other call for two teaspoonfuls or more.

But Baking Powder is not all you'll save when using Calumet. You save baking materials. Calumet never fails. The last level teaspoonful is as powerful as the first. Calumet is perfectly manufactured—keeps perfectly—and is moderate in price.

You save when you buy it—You save when you use it. One trial will satisfy you of these facts—and demonstrate beyond doubt that "Calumet spells economy."

Your grocer sells it on a guarantee of money back if you are not pleased with results.

Calumet contains only such ingredients no have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

NO REDUCTION IN STEEL PRODUCTS

Announcement Made in Washington Yesterday of Reduction in Prices Does not Apply to the Finished Goods, Such as Farm Implements and Other Commodities.

Telegraph dispatches from Washington announce that a complete new scale of steel prices has been agreed upon by the United States Steel industry board, which shows a 14 per cent reduction in basic prices. The main reason for the reduction is to promote building on a large scale, which has been at a standstill since the United States entered the war.

The announcement may be taken by the general public as a reduction in every commodity which steel enters but it does not, in general public, but it does not. It only applies to heavy tonnage buyers and is to stimulate building as the saving there will allow the present price of labor to be maintained.

A comparison of steel prices will show that in 1914 steel bars could be bought for $23.00 per ton; in 1917 the price fixed by the government was $58.00 per ton; the present fixed price is $42.00 per ton.

Pig iron in 1914 sold for $12.00 per ton; in 1917 the fixed government price was $33.00; the present price is $25.75, a reduction of $7.25 from the high point.

As an illustration of how the new price will apply to farm machinery, which is a finished product a gang plow is taken for comparison. Implements did not advance in keeping with the high prices on steel and labor. The decrease of the present price is only $7.00 per ton or 3.1-2c per pound. Applied to gang plow which weighs 750 pounds, there would be a saving of $12.52 1-2 in the steel. The extra cost on labor will more than offset the decrease in material cost as stated above and therefore there doesn't seem to be much chance for a reduction in the finished product at this time.

INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG PEOPLE.
An institute of religious education will be held at the Congregational church today, under the general direction of Chaplain Paul Reynolds, assistant secretary of Sunday schools of the church. He will be assisted by Rev. W. E. Collins. At 10 a. m., Chaplain Reynolds will talk on religious education. It will be somewhat of a conference with the expectation that all will take part. At 2 p. m. there will be a meeting for young people and their work. There will be a social time from 3:30 to 5:30. Special development of young people is being attempted by the Congregational church in a country wide way and has resulted in a great deal of added church interest.

PORTO RICO IS LAND OF INTEREST

Illustrated Lecture Given By Dean Salisbury at Woman's College Friday Night.

Last evening an interested audience heard Dean D. R. Salisbury of Chicago in an interesting address on the island of Porto Rico, one of our neighbors and wards. Dr. Salisbury spoke from first knowledge having visited and studied the territory of which he spoke.

The people are such as would be expected in a tropical climate yet they have many good and interesting traits. The surface of the island is variegated; some parts of it hilly and rough while other parts are comparatively level and susceptible of cultivation. There are some very good roads through parts of the island and over these automobiles travel making better time than railroad trains. Where there are no well built roads traveling is very difficult and well nigh impossible except by pack horses. The frost is practically unknown, the mercury never rises as high as in this place, ninety being the highest but owing to the humidity in some parts the heat is quite oppressive. Inland the land is higher and the heat is not so unpleasant. The valuable timber has largely been removed and much of the island is covered with a scrubby growth not valuable. Bananas grow there though the chief industry is sugar cane and the people are fond of chewing the stalk while fresh juice makes a palatable drink.

The stalks are cut into pieces about four feet long. Once during a game of baseball a train loaded with cane passed and all rushed from the grand stand and each helped himself to a stalk. Gardens are also cultivated to good advantage and much is produced by intelligent operation. Houses are cheaply built and no preparations for heating are made and seldom needed though the mercury goes down to sixty people shiver with discomfort.

IT'S CAPT. RUSSEL NOW

Capt. Stuart Russel is the proper title now for a Jacksonville soldier who went overseas as a second lieutenant. The first news of Capt. Russel's promotion from the rank of first lieutenant was received by Mrs. Russel yesterday. Capt. Russel is now in charge of a motor supply train in France and is very busy in connection with demobilization work. Thus far there is no indication of his early release from the service, although most other American officers and men would be very glad to return to his home and business.

CLOTHING NEED FOR OVERSEAS IS SHOWN

Red Cross Asks In Humanity's Name Only for Things that You Do Not Need.

For four years the American people have given freely in answer to every plea. They have given to relieve suffering in every corner of the world—and to finance a great war. They are a little weary of giving. But a plea comes now which involves very little sacrifice—in fact—none at all—and which means life to thousands of people—people who have suffered unbelievable hardships for four long years and who are still suffering.

All that is asked for is clothing which the American people would never wear again—the winter garments which are being discarded, the old shoes which are not good enough to be repaired, the old coats and dresses and suits, the discarded underwear which would go into the rag bag because it is beginning to wear a little, the dresses and petticoats and shoes and suits, which the children have outgrown. These cast-off garments, which would mean at most a negligible sum from the old clothes man or a supply of dust cloths, can prevent the most poignant suffering overseas.

The refugees in Northern France, Belgium, Italy, Greece, Albania, Montenegro, Serbia, Czechoslovakia, Palestine and Poland are in rags. Many of them are wearing the same garments they had on when they were driven from their homes four years ago.

The American Red Cross proposes to send all the clothing gathered up in the present old clothes drive direct to the suffering people of Europe.

It is difficult to conceive of the extent of the suffering. Statistics like the following express so little and yet they are practically all that the relief workers in the devastated regions have time to send. For instance they write that the men along the Marne are wearing burlap sacks for shirts and the children are using flour sacks for pants. In one month $50 people in one town in the Aisne district applied for clothing to the Red Cross station. In Laon a city about which important and desperate struggles raged four years, 300 families including 1,200 people were aided with distribution of clothing in a few weeks.

In Voves a badly destroyed village a few miles from Laon, thirty refugees returned directly after the armistice, just about the time winter set in. A few bags, three wheelbarrows, two baby carriages and a quantity of sugar beets was the sum total of their possessions. They sat about fires, which were fed by the wrecked furniture and timbers of their homes, eating the beets. They were unable to venture far from the glow of the fires because of lack of proper clothing.

Similar conditions are to be found in all the towns in the path of the German devastation. If life is to be maintained among the refugees, clothing must be rushed at once. Not only to France, but to Belgium, too and to Italy, Greece, Albania, Czechoslovakia, Greece, Roumania and Serbia. For the Balkans have been as badly treated as France. And up north to Poland, where the cold makes the suffering still more intense and down to Palestine, a country that is almost entirely destitute.
